

REACH ONE CHILD FOUNDATION

Reach One Child Foundation (R.O.C. Foundation) is a registered non-partisan organization co-founded by actress/singer Cherine and business partner, Patrick Lindsay in 2003. Reach One Child Foundation is dedicated to providing need-based scholarships, motivational and mentorship programmes as well as community building initiatives for youths in Jamaica. Reach One Child Foundation works closely with youths from inner-city and disenfranchised communities by raising public awareness to issues that affect the youths as well as helping and empowering them through education, sports and the performing arts. Reach One Child Foundation works closely with other charities, activists, policy makers and other agencies to help children across Jamaica access education and opportunities to guarantee a better future.

R.O.C Jamaica Scholarship Program was established in 2013 to further assist high achievers from primary/elementary government schools with financial needs across the island. The R.O.C Jamaica Scholarship program awards yearly scholarships and works to support scholastic excellence, and encourage community building among grant recipients. Scholarships are meant to be supplementary. For more information visit our website www.reachonechild.org or email us at info@reachonechild.org.
